U.S. Activist Solidarity Delegation to China, organized by National Immigrant Solidarity Network and Action LA Network, will explore historic, cultural, social, political and economic aspects of China. Our goal is to help promote a deeper understanding and to realize the importance of U.S.- China relations to the US and the world.

At our second delegation to Southeastern China's Pearl River Delta Region of Shenzhen, Dongguan and Hong Kong, the so-called "factory of the World." We'll explore China's economy, globalization, working class and visit Hong Kong--my birth place, meeting with left-wing activists, understand their struggles against US/NED backed right-wing forces.

Itinerary:

12/26 Tuesday - 12/30 Saturday Shenzhen, Dongguan

Factory, worker center, local activist meetings, help us to understand the "Global Factory"

12/31 Sunday Hong Kong - 1/5 Friday Hong Kong

History of Hong Kong and it's beauty, includes: Victoria Harbor and Victoria Peak, old town and museum. Meeting with Hong Kong union, left-wing organizations and community orgs.

 Optional January 5-8, 2018 post 4-days delegation tour to Guilin (Extra Costs)
