

SUPPORT THE DREAM ACT

Many undocumented students find colleges and universities doors closed to them because of their immigration status after graduation. These are longtime residents of this country who have grown up and have made the United States their home. By supporting student legalization, we are investing in communities that would eventually benefit from the careers that these students are pursuing. Our communities cannot afford to be ignoring these students anymore!

IMMIGRANTS FOR PEACE & JUSTICE CAMPAIGNS

The immigrant communities had increasingly become one of the fastest growing targets for the U.S. military recruiters. With the “promises” of citizenships and show your “patriotism,” many new comers were tricked to join the army to fight the unjust wars of Afghanistan and Iraq. Many injured even killed, we call for No Killing for Citizenship as part of the growing counter-recruitment campaign.

The National Immigrant Solidarity Network (ISN) is a coalition of immigrant rights, labor, human rights, religious, and student activist organizations from across the country. We work with leading immigrant rights, students and labor groups. In solidarity with their campaigns, and organize community immigrant rights education campaigns.

From community education campaigns to direct actions and strategic organizing, we are organizing critical immigrant-worker campaigns that are moving toward justice for all immigrants!

National Immigrant Solidarity Network: Our Vision

National Immigrant Solidarity Network (ISN) was formed November 2003. Dozen national grassroots & community groups were agreed to form a broad-based immigrant support coalition, aim to mobilize community forces to work with different national immigrants and civil rights organizations and in solidarity with their campaigns. ISN is the proud member organizations of United for Peace & Justice, Latin American Solidarity Coalition and Asian-American Labor Alliance (Los Angeles Chapter).

That's no secrets that domestically, "War Against terror" is in fact oppressions against immigrant communities. However, the government obviously doesn't really want to get rid of all undocumented workers, because it would be the simplest thing in the world to find them. Everyone knows where undocumented workers work. No, we want them here...as long as they don't ask for a living wage and thereby threaten our ongoing massive accumulation of wealth.

ISN supports the anti-globalization & peace movements to link global campaigns with local justice issues, and to supports community struggles where they lives. THINK GLOBALLY, ACT LOCALLY.

WE DEMANDS!

OPPOSE ALL RACIST ANTI-IMMIGRANT LEGISLATIONS: CLEAR ACT/HOMELAND SECURITY ENHANCEMENT ACT AND REAL ID ACT

CLEAR Act requires state and local police to enforce federal, civil immigration laws. Using local police to enforce federal immigration laws conflicts with their primary mission of fighting crime in our communities.

REAL ID Act prohibit states from issuing driver's licenses to undocumented immigrants; Require driver's license applicants to prove their citizenship status, and set up a system of "temporary" and "regular" licenses according to one's visa; Make it more difficult for real refugees to get asylum; Make people inadmissible and deportable for First Amendment-protected activity; and Eliminate environmental and other laws standing in the way of completing a section of fence along the U.S./Mexico border.

IMMIGRANT LABOR JUSTICE CAMPAIGNS

There's no doubt that immigrant rights and labor rights are closely connected to each other, because many documented and undocumented immigrants are exploited and working at sweatshops conditions because of their legal status or English capacity. ISN working closely with labor groups student organizations and immigrant labor center from across the country, to support the justice for immigrant workers.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST MINUTEMEN

The Border Battle of 2005 is heating up again. From California to Texas, the self-styled Minutemen and their opponents are gearing up for a offensive along the U.S.-Mexico border against migrants. It's time we call for a national coalition and mobilization, and tell the racist Minutemen to "go home!"
